

Parents, please be aware and spread the word!

Reception CAKE SALE
Monday 3rd March 2025, 3.15-3.45pm

If we have lent your child spare underwear, jogging bottoms, polo shirt or sweatshirt from our supply, please return them to Reception Class as soon as possible as we have now completely run out of spares!

We ask that parents please ensure that all grapes and tomatoes sent into school are sliced lengthways to avoid choking hazards.

Thank you!

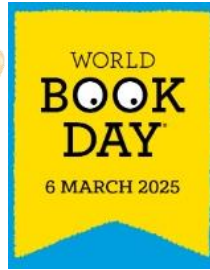

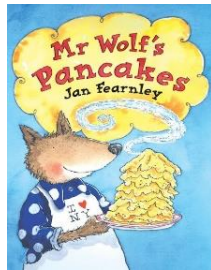

What are we learning in Reception this week?

World Book Day - Thursday 6th March - letter emailed

Tricky words of the week:

Our structured story:

Mr Wolf's Pancakes

Mathematics

We will continue to develop our knowledge of 'part-part-whole'.

We will be challenging ourselves with numbers bonds to 5 and 10.

Play 'bunny ears' to show the different representations.

Expressive Art & Design

We will be helping Mr Wolf write his shopping list of ingredients.

We will act out the story with friends.

We will be using loose parts to create our own 'toppings' for pancakes!

Communication, Language and Literacy

We will be developing our vocabulary and oracy skills by learning new language such as:
neighbours, nearby, politely, borrow / lending, chorused, drifted, greedy, gobbled, bulging

Understanding the World

Have you ever tasted pancakes? Have you ever made pancakes? Have you ever followed a recipe? What are ingredients? What do we use them for?

Personal, Social & Emotional

We will be talking about how we can look after our planet and how we can contribute to this.

LeaderinMe

We will be talking about how we can prepare our bodies to learn and what good learning behaviours 'look' like.

Phonics boom reader

We will be reviewing oo (book), ar (dark), or (horn), ur (fur) and ow (owl)

We will be spelling words such as:

look, dark, park, hurt turn, down, now

Read at least 3 x per week with your child and add to Boom Reader!
