

Moonlight

When children go to bed,
Dreams swirling in their head.
The streets all fall quiet,
but in the woods, there is a riot.

Fireflies come out at night,
Shining really bright.
Owls hoot away,
While foxes stalk their prey.
Bats fly around,
Making a clicking sound.
Everyone playing their own tune,
Under the crescent moon.